PARNELL'S LEADERSHIP.

No Stone Will Be Left Unturned to Postpone Indefinitely the Question of His Retirement.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—It is not unlikely that the attitude assumed yesterday by Parnell in determining to stand against his enemies, will lead to the abandonment of the tour of O'Brien, Dillon and their colleagues in behalf of the plan of campaign. Until long after midnight, when it was supposed that they had retired to their respective apartments, the envoys were closeted in parlor 15 and engaged in an animated discussion regarding their future movements. According to the program originally adopted Dillon and Harrington should appear at Dayton to-morrow night, O'Brien and Sullivan at Indianapolis on Thursday night, and T. P. O'Connor at Duluth on the same night, while Dillon O'Brien, Sullivan and Harrington, were to meet on Sunday. After that the party were to seperate, Dillion going to Kansas City, in the west, O'Brien east and the other southeast. This program, however, is likely to abandoned, although the matter may be postponed until this afternoon, in the hope that coming deveolpments may change the situation. Harrington is said to have declared that he would not accompany the envoys any further, although he is undecided whether to return to London at once or remain for a while in this country. All will depend upon the instructions which he receives after the London conference has concluded its labors. If Parnell instructs him to go ahead, he will make a tour of the country on his own account as Parnell's representative.

Dillon admits that the present crisis, and especially the manifesto of himself and colleagues, has seriously complicated the situation, and holds himself in readiness to return home at once if McCarthy considers his presence and that of his associates necessary. Mean while the question as to disposition of funds secured on the present tour will not down. Delegates announced at the outset how they were representatives of Parnell and likewise gave it out that the monies contributed would be forwarded to the treasurers at Dublin, appointed by Parnell. The collection book issued by the promoters of local demonstration have the statement on the covers that the money raised would be handed to the Irish delegates to be forwarded to Mr. Parnell. The members the local executive committee, however, are now divided on the question whether this pledge should be carried out. Some contended that if Parnell is deposed he cannot longer be regarded as a proper recipient of the funds and that they should be entrusted to O'Brien and his colleagues and used at their discretion.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—As the inevitable hour draws near in which a conclusion must be reached by the anxious deliberations of the Irish nationalist parliamentarians as to the future leadership of their party, the attention of Gladstonian liberals, liberal unionists and tory members of the house of commons steadily concentrates itself upon the room wherein the Irish patriots, confronted by as great a danger as ever threatened their country, are groping about for some path which may lead them out of the labrynthian difficulties of the present crisis back to the highway of success so lately and hopefully traversed by them. Before the hour appointed for the convening of to-day's session of the conference members of the house, Irish and English politicians and an army of newspaper men arrived at the approaches to the Irish parliamentary headquarters and eagerly discussed the probable effect of the situation of Parnell's blunt speech of yesterday, of the counsel of delegates to the United States, and of the act of Archbishops Walsh and Croke. The opinions were as numerous and diverse as the individuals giving utterance to them. On one point, however, there seemed to be a unmistakable unanmity of opinion among the English liberals. They bitterly resented Mr. Parnell's savage characterization of Mr. Gladstone as "a garrulous old gentleman."

Before the hour of meeting arrived the near approaches to the room were cleared and those persons loitering in the vicinity were kept under close surveilance by those directly interested in the proceedings. Just before the hour of 12 the Irish nationalists commenced rapidly passing through the various corridors and into the place of conference and promptly on the hour of noon the doors were closed and the deliberations resumed. At the hour of the closing of the doors it was ordered that all representatives of the press be excluded from contigious corridors.

Mr. Parnell, who was the first to arrive, took the chair immediately after the closing of doors and without a moment's delay called the meeting to order. The first half hour of the session was devoted to the reading of telegrams and cable dispatches which had been received from Ireland and the United States by different members since the meeting of yesterday and the reading of manifestos issued by the delegates of the party now in America, the latter being received with loud cheers.

When the preliminary business had been disposed of by Mr. Parnell, James O'Kelly, one of the members of the house of commons for the northern division, thought fit to abandon division of Rosecommor, and addressed his colleagues. Mr. O'Kelly asserted that there was no baser ingratitude than the abandonment of Mr. Parnell by his compatriots in parliament simply because a number of aspiring politicians, who had sought the alliance of the nationalist party with an eye single to their own advantage, thought fit to abandon the high position in the interest of the people of Ireland, which their leader had taken, and because the same ambitious men had intrigued to compare the downfall of the trusted leader of the Irish nation.

At this point the conference adjourned for luncheon. Immediately after luncheon the conference reassembled, and a few minutes later Mr. Parnell, leaving the chair, offered a motion that an adjournment be taken to enable the members to be present in the house of commons to participate in the debate on the second reading of the government's Irish land-purchase bill. It is now quite manifest that no stone will be left unturned by the friends of Mr. Parnell to postpone indefinitely the decision of the party on the question of the gentleman's retirement from its leadership. So true is this that all hopes of reaching a decision on the main question to-day have been abandoned.

DUBLIN, Dec. 2.—The Freeman's Journal to day says: "Time is the great healer. We do not object to having the decision of the nationalist party relative to the retention of Mr. Parnell in the leadership postponed until the feeling of the country has had time to manifest itself unmistakably."

A POLICEMAN'S DEATH.

He Failed to Answer the Roll Call on Earth.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—As the men of the night squad in the Mulberry street police station were about to turn ont at 12 o'clock last night Policeman John J. Bates started up the winding stairs that led to the dormotories. At the second landing he lost his balance and fell over the railing into the hallway. Sergeant Maloney was at the desk and hearing Bates' misstep, looked up just in time to see him fall head foremost to the foot of the stairs. Dr. H. J. Holcomb was sent for and Father Callahan, of the old Cathedral in Mott street, came also. While the men in the squad were answering to their names at roll call the priest administered the last sacrament of the church and their comrade breathed his last. Bates was married and was thirty years old.

EUCHRE PLAYED SEVEN UP.

Lost, Refuses to Pay and a Suit in Court is the Result.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—B. P. Hutchinson, the well known and wealthy board of trade man, has been made defendant in a suit for $10,000 brought by Samuel H. Bonnes, a broker as plaintiff. The suit is the outgrowth of a friendly game of "seven up," in which Hutchinson, Bonnes and one Lowenstein engaged several days ago. When the game broke up Hutchinson found himself several thousand dollars behind, represented by I. O. U's. given to his fortunate opponents. He was asked to replace these slips of paper by a check on a bank, but he most emphatically refused to do so on that occasion, as well as later on. Hence the suit.

A WIFE BEATER

Has Punishment Dealt Out to Him By Masked Men.

NEVADA, Mo., Dec. 2.—Late Sunday night Robert Correy was taken out of the city calaboose by four masked men and carried to the outskirts of town, where he was outrageously whipped with hickory whips, over 100 blows being laid across his naked back and shoulders. When released he was covered with blood and innumerable welts showed the severity of his punishment. Correy was incarcerated for wife beating and the vigilantes said they whipped him for this and also for being a Pinkerton detective and correspondent of a Kansas City paper. His wife denies that he had ever whipped her.

AFTER THE REDS!

The Sixth United States Cavalry Regiment Ordered to Fort Meade, S. D.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 2.—The following dispatch has just been received here from Fort Wing College, N. M.: The greatest excitement prevails at the present writing, 1:30 a. m. A dispatch was received by General Carr from the war department directing that the Sixth cavalry proceed with the least practical delay to Fort Meade, South Dakota.

Hundreds of lanterns were seen flitting to and fro, men and officers were hurrying hither and thither. General Carr was up in a moment superintending and giving orders to expedite the movement. The general has had vast experience with the Sioux and is most eager to meet some of them again. Wagons were loading baggage all night and horses are being shipped as fast as possible.

It is believed that in from ten to eleven hours the whole regiment will have left here on its way to the front. This speaks well for the galloping Sixth, who have brated over fifteen years in Arizona and New Mexico.

Lieut.-Col. Morrow, with troop G, Sixth cavalry, will join the command at Watrous station, N. M., which will make in all a total of seven troops at the headquarters of the Sixth cavalry. They will arrive in Denver probably Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Lieutenant Anderson, of the Sixteenth United States infantry, left the recruiting station at David's Island last night with sixty-five soldies bound for the frontier, where they will go in the Second and Eighth infantry at Fort Robinson, Neb. Orders were received from the war department Sunday to get the detachment ready for service in the Indian campaign. The soldiers, who are nearly all recently enlisted men, do not like their dangerous detail and some of them swear they will desert before they reached their destination. Another detachment will be started on Saturday.

FORGER DISAPPEARS.

A Cashier Who is Short $40,000 in His Accounts Skips.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Wm. Lyttleton, Long, who is under indictment for forgery amounting to nearly $40,000, has disappeared. He was arrested and indicted last May, and barely a month later he was released by Judge Fritzgerald on his own recognizance. Long was employed by J. D. Norlinger & Son, as cashier and in May last it was discovered that he had forged a check on the firm for a few hundred dollars. He was arrested, but a month or so after his incarceration his lawyer, and a young man who claimed to come from the firm, called on the district attorney and asked that, in view of Long's previous good character, a motion be made for Long's release as the firm did not care to prosecute. This was done. Later investigation of Long's accounts, however, show that he has committed forgeries amounting to nearly $40,000, and the firm is anxious for his arrest, but Long has disappeared and the detectives can find no trace of him.

SIX THOUSAND MINERS

Go Out on a Strike at Birmingham, Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec 2.—The strike of coal miners of this state went into effect yesterday but all the men did not go out as expected. About 6,000 of the 8,000 quit work. The mine operators say that they will fill the strikers' places with negroes. The only sensational feature of the strike is a report that it was brought about by the efforts of Pennsylvania iron manufacturers who want to cause a shut-down of furnaces in this district and it is claimed that these iron manufacturers have promised the miners strong financial support in the event of a prolonged strike.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 2.—The miners employed by the Monongahela Coke and Coal company struck yesterday against a decrease of 5 cents a ton in pay. About 800 men stopped work. This is a great mining region, and there is indications that the strike will become general. The men are orderly and no trouble is expected.

MRS. EVA HAMILTON.

The Indictment Against Her May be Dismissed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The district attorney will make application to-day before either Judge Cowing or Martine for the dismissal of the indictment against Mrs. Eva Hamilton, charging her with conspiring to defraud the late Robert Ray Hamilton. The district attorney says the case cannot be prosecuted on account of Mr. Hamilton's death. If the motion is granted Mrs. Hamilton can safely bring proceedings in the city to contest Robert Ray Hamilton's will.

Damages for Gun-Shot Wounds.

TERRE HAUTE, Dec. 2.—Henry Brinkman, a restaurant-keeper, recently emptied one barrel of a shotgun into the back of Joseph Rowe, of Brazil, because the latter refused to pay 20 cents for a plate of soup. When Rowe was dunned for payment he knocked Brinkman down and ran. The restaurant man gave pursuit and shot Rowe at the depot. Brinkman was arrested but the state case against him was nollied. To-day Rowe entered suit for $5,000 damages against Brinkman.

WILL COME TO INDIANA.

Deal That May Result in the Removal of All of Chicago's Packing Houses.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The Journal says that negotiations have been in progress for several days between the big packers, Armour, Swift and Morris, who have recently purchased a large tract of land near Hammond, Ind., on which to erect slaughter-houses, and Mr. Stickney, representing the railroad and other interests concerned in the proposed new stockyards in the township of Lyons, situated west of the city. It is understood that an agreement has been practically reached by which the packers will relieve the present owners of the Stickney tract of their obligations, and, in return, the Stickney syndicate will shift its railroad and other interests to the Indiana tract. If this deal is carried through it will practically settle the transfer of all the stockwards packing and slaughtering interests of Chicago into another state.

Ownership of Lake Cicott Established

LOGANSPORT, Dec. 2.—The case involving the ownership of Lake Cicott was decided in the circuit court here for plaintiff by a jury, after a hard legal fight. The lake is situated in this county, and is a mile long and half a mile wide. John C. Brophy, a civil engineer, was granted a patent for the same from the United States government. Owners of the land that surrounds the lake claim the same as riparian ownership. The Pan Handle railroad has large ice houses at the lake, and is largely interested. The case will go to the supreme court, and probably to the United States court.

ALMOST TO DEATH.

Claude Notestine Dragged Five Squares by a Vicious Cow--- Thrilling Experience.

Claude, the young son of Grocer John Notestine and wife, of 48 West Third street, had a thrilling experience this morning which almost cost him his life. One of Claudo's chores was to lead the family cow to pasture. He was performing this act with a light heart this morning and did not notice that Mrs. Brindle at the other end of the rope was out of sorts. His first intimation of such a circumstance was when the bovine gave three or four spasmodic whirls of her tail, shook her head and made a dash forward. The boy was no match for a mad cow. The harder he pulled, the faster ran the animal until at last the latter was mistress of the situation. The boy was hurled off his feet, the rope in his fall becoming entangled about his legs. In this precarious situation he was dragged five squares over the rough road, receiving fearful lacerations to various parts of his body but happily no fractured bones. The cow was caught, thus ending a flight that would no doubt have caused the unfortunate boy's death. Dr. W. H. Myers is doing all within his power to alleviate the lad's suffering.

CENSUS COMMITTEE

Hears Representatives From New York and Brooklyn for a Re-count.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The house committee on the eleventh census held its first meeting of the session to day and heard a delegation of representatives from New York and Brooklyn concerning recounts of the population of the two cities. The New York delegation consisted of Messrs. Flower, Cummings, Tracy, Spinnola, Denphey and Wm. McN. Sher, Mayor Grant's private secretary. Mr. Flower was the spokesman. He asked the committee to grant a hearing on the resolutions introduced in the house yesterday by Messrs. Flower and Cummings, providing for a recount of New York. Mr. Dunnell, of Minnesota, the chairman of the committee, said that he thought the request was proper and it was agreed to hear the arguments on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The New York members say at the hearing a committee from New York will be present with affidavits from every person who was not enumerated by the federal census taken in the Second ward, the only ward of which the federal enumeration numbers have been furnished the municipal authorities. The committee will also furnish affidavits from 450 heads of families, stating that they were present in the city in June when the enumeration was taken and that no enumerators called on them. The New York authorities have called on Superintendent Porter for the population figures of four more enumeration districts, but the request has not been complied with although the money for making the transcripts has been furnished. The New York congressional delegation will ask the census committee to accept the police enumeration of the Second ward as proof of the thoroughness of the police census method of requiring the figures of municipal census for the whole city. Messrs. Campbell, Magner and Clancey, of the Brooklyn congressional delegation, also appeared before the committee and Mr. Campbell said at the proper time he would ask, on behalf of Brooklyn, that action similar to that taken in the request of New York, be taken.

Child Burned to Death.

LOGANSPORT, Dec. 2.—The three year-old daughter of Wesley Penny was burned to death last evening. The father and mother were out milking, when the child complained of being cold, and went into the house to get warm. They were alarmed at her cries a few moments afterward, and, rushing to the house, found her clothing in flames. She died from her injuries after living about two hours in an unconscious condition. It is supposed her clothing caught from the stove, which she had opened.

Pretty Cold.

SARNIA LAKE, N. Y., Dec. 2.—The thermometer this morning registered 11 degrees below zero at the signal service station, being the lowest ever recorded at this station at this time of the year.

Killed by an Old Wound.

FORTVILLE, Dec. 2.—Frank Brown, the fifteen year-old son of Wm. Brown, died yesterday morning. Last spring two surgical operations were performed on the boy, the first the amputation of a leg and the second removing the entire leg from the socket. He apparently recovered his health, but a few weeks ago he injured the newly healed spot, with the above result.

ENDED HIS SUFFERING.

Martin Mergel Prefers Death to Misery and Sends a Bullet Through His Brain.

Martin Mergel, the oldest son of Reinhard Mergel, the well known tobacconist, committed suicide by shooting himself at 1:30 p. m. to day.

His parents reside at 324 Calhoun street. To day at dinner the family circle consisted of the father, mother, son, Martin, and daughter, Carrie, a young lady. Martin, who has been affected with consumption for about three years, complained of feeling worse than usual. The father departed as usual for his store, accompanied by his daughter, Carrie, leaving Mrs. Mergel and the ailing son at home alone.

Upon their departure the young Mr. Mergel turned to his mother and said: "I guess I'll have to take some more morphine to stop this pain," and he located the seat of his suffering by pressing his hands to his lungs. His mother urged him not to take any more of the drug unless he really had to do it and she impressed upon his mind the evil results arising from a too frequent dosing of the same.

"Very well, mother," said the young man in a resigned tone. "I think you are right." Those words were the last he uttered. With faltering step Mr. Mergel entered his bedroom, to which communication was had from the sitting room. Mrs. Mergel, thinking he wanted to lie down, stepped into another apartment. Simultaneous with her movement, Martin Mergel had made a quick and final resolve to end a miserable existence which gave to him no promise of the future, but a torturesome death. He would trust to the uncertainty of the other life and throw himself upon the mercies of the infinite judge of man's works. An instant later he opened a bureau drawer, extracted a 32 calibre revolver of the Smith & Wesson manufacture. He raised the weapon to his right temple, pulled the trigger and the leaden messenger of death went crashing through his brain. Mrs. Mergel ran to the room to find her son lying partly upon the bed, where he had fallen. On the floor lay the smoking revolver. A stream of blood, gushing from the wound, had run down the blanched face and coursed its crimson way down the white shirt front. The mother knew that her son was dead, but with frantic haste she summoned Dr. A. J. Kesler, who said that death had been instantaneous.

Martin Mergel was well and popularly known. For years he was identified with his father in the retail tobacco business. He was a brother of Rink Mergel, and like him, was a devotee to hunting and fishing. He had no enemies and his friends were friends always. The announcement of his suicide will come like a shock. The funeral arrangements will be announced hereafter.

PLEADS INNOCENCE.

Smith E. Williams, the Gray-haired Offender, Arraigned Before Commissioner Leonard.

Smith E. Williams, who was sent to jail by Mayor Harding yesterday under $200 bonds, to await trial, was to-day handed over to the United States authorities, and if they can make a case against him the other criminal proceedings will be quashed. The offense for which he was arrested was procuring small sums of money under false pretenses. When United States Commissioner Elmer Leonard got the consent of Prosecutor Robinson to forfeit the case for the present he instructed United States Marshal Bolman to bring the prisoner before him. This was done at 10 o'clock to-day. The affidavit charges Williams with procuring money from Mrs. Susannah Ulz, a resident of Grant county, Ind., his method of exacting the same being by falsely representing himself a pension examiner. The prisoner, an old man whose long gray locks and faltering step betoken age, sat motionless while the affidavit was being read to him. When the commissioner had read it through, the old man looked up and said: "I would like to ask the court when this hearing will come up."

"I will set the hearing for Friday at 2 p. m., and will place your bond at $500."

"I would ask another question," said the prisoner. "Will this Mrs. Ulz be a witness in the case?"

"Most assuredly."

"That is all I want to know. She will at once admit that she does not identify me as the guilty man. I am assuredly not the man you are after. Take me to jail again, marshal," and turning to the officer, he held out his trembling wrists to be handcuffed. As he was led away more than one thought he spoke the truth.

This Williams has a strange history. Through some mysterious cause he became an outcast. He claims to have relatives at Toledo. He is shrewd and reticent, and Clarke Stanton, the special pension agent in this city, says that the description of the man who operated in Grant county under the aliases of Carpenter and Smith, tallies rather accurately with Williams' make up. The case is attracting considerable notice.

FORT WAYNE IN IT.

A Michigan and Indiana Base Ball League to Be Organized.

The following from the Grand Rapids Democrat will interest our base ball cranks: "A meeting has been called to organize a Michigan and Indiana base ball league, to be held at the Morton house in this city January 5, 1891. A writer in the Sporting Life thus outlines the plan of the new league. At this meeting it is expected that a large delegation will be present. The cities to represent this league will be Grand Rapids, Saginaw, Bay City, Port Huron, Jackson and Manistee, of Michigan; Fort Wayne, Elkhart and South Bend, of Indiana, the latter two cities to constitute one club.

Should any one of the above cities fail to enter, we will try to have Toledo or Detroit enter, as it is expected that Toledo will drop out of the American association. We will have a salary limit that all can get along upon and survive. It is expected to organize the league on a sound financial basis—make a salary limit, say from $800 to $1,000, make each and every club put up a bond of $500 of a guarantee to finish the scheduled season. For president and secretary of the Northwestern league I would suggest that Frank W. Hine, of Grand Rapids, be elected to fill the office. He would by odds be the best man to fill these two important offices. This year he will have time to give to the position. One thing is certain, if elected to the place, Mr. Hine will see that next season is made the most prosperous in the history of this minor league."

A BANNER WEEK.

The Masons Have Imposing Ceremonies This Week.

This is quite a week in Masonic circles. The grand inspection of the Knight Templars will be held Thursday and prominent Masons from surrounding towns will be present. The annual election of officers of Fort Wayne chapter will be held to-morrow evening and the election in Summit City lodge will take place on Friday evening. CAPTAIN TWOMEY ASSAULTED.

He is Waylaid and in the Scuffle Has Three Ribs Broken.

At a late hour last night Captain Thomas Twomey, the well known ex-soldier, was attacked at the corner of Calhoun and Main streets by three ruffians, whose object it is believed was robbery. The captain was so badly kicked in the chest by the brutal assailants that three ribs were fractured. Joe Hanna appeared on the scene and the fellows fled. No arrests were made. The captain was conveyed to the Edsall house, where he remains under the care of Dr. W. H. Myers.

PARNELL refuses to retire from the leadership of the Irish party in the English parliament.

TWENTY SEVEN THOUSAND men in New York City are supported by their wives, and all these men, doubtless, were counted in the census as heads of families.

THE first Thanksgiving proclamation by a governor of Indiana was issued by Governor David Wallace, father of Gen. Lew Wallace, on the 4th of November, 1839, fixing the 25th of that month as Thanksgiving day.

VALPARAISO is preparing to pave its Main street and three other streets with crushed stone. The improvement will cost $10,270.84, of which the city's share will be $410.10. Expense to single lot owners scarcely exceeds $50.

THE Irish envoys, Dillon, O'Brien and their colleagues in this country, have issued a paper addressed "to Justin McCarthy, M. P., vice-chairman of the Irish parliamentary party," declaring their protest against the continuance of Parnell as the Irish leader.

SUPERINTENDENT PORTER of the census bureau has prepared a set of tables showing the apportionment of members of congress among the states under the new census, from 333 (the present aggregate of membership) to 375. If the existing aggregate should be preserved, Indiana would lose a congressman.

THE statement that the New York World had been sold to a Philadelphia syndicate for $3,000,000 is emphatically denied. As the property is earning a net profit of about a million dollars a year, there is no reason to suspect that the owner is anxious to dispose of it at any price, even though the offer is fabulous.

THE trustees of Washington township offer to the county commissioners fourteen miles of free gravel road and if they are accepted Fort Wayne will be greatly benefitted. Free gravel roads and more of them is what we need. They are beneficial to the farmers and the city and will do away with the curse of bad roads.

THE Indianapolis News in a column editorial, on Saturday, argued the necessity of a new constitution for Indiana. The News insists that the changed conditions, great development of resources, the increased business and manufacturing interests and the great accumulation of wealth in the state, demand a new constitution.

THE county commissioners met yesterday and reorganized for their December sitting. Mr. John H. Brannan, who has been president of the board for a year, retired, and Mr. Henry Bullerman succeeded to the chair in the order of his service. Mr. Jasper W. Jones was chosen vice-president, and Mr. Brannan is secretary.

THE enforcement of the anti lottery law has nearly ruined the Louisiana concern that has absorbed millions of earnings for the last twenty years. Where 400 clerks were necessary to do its business a few months since, thirteen now barely have enough to keep them busy. This enforcement of law demonstrates the power of the government when it seriously sets about to effect reforms.

THE state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. has just completed his report. He says there are in Indiana 460,000 young men ranging in age from fifteen to thirty-nine; 437,000 of whom are outside of the church, and 345,000 do not attend church at all; thirty towns of over 5,000 population without any Young Men's Christian association; 5,000 saloons, and over $15,000,000 spent for liquor every year in Indiana and 7,000 young men employed to carry on this business.

BEN BUTLER is growing old, but he still retains his pristine vigor and common sense as well as honesty. In speaking of the fight against Parnell, he said:

Assuming, as one must do from Mr. Parnell's character as a straight-forward, truthful man, that his statements concerning Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley are correctly reported, two things very clearly appear: That the whole movement against Mr. Parnell is for political reasons only, and that the pretense that the attack on him is founded solely on the objection to him on the ground of his personal delinquency, is wholly hypocritical. That a man is really to be proscribed in English public life because of his supposed moral delinquencies with women is too farcial to be credited.

If I were in his place I should go into parliament, and after stating the accusations made against me in proper language, I should address the members in the language of our Savior to the accusers of the woman who was charged with like offense: 'He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.'"

THE delegates to the International Barber's Protective association are in session in this city deliberating upon questions of interest to their calling. The tonsorial artists have made rapid strides toward advancement in late years and among their ranks are now numbered many very intelligent men who command the respect and esteem of all classes of citizens. Their business is such as to give them splendid opportunities of becoming acquainted with all the questions of the day. They are quick to avail themselves of them, and as a consequence we find the barbers of this country well posted and well read and they are able to defend their opinions in an argument on either politics, religion or other topics. Few men know how to talk better than do the barbers and withal they are a good class of citizens. THE SENTINEL extends a welcome to the delegates of the International Barbers association and hopes their session it this city will be a pleasant and profitable one.

A MEETING of great importance to the Methodist church generally is to be held at Indianapolis on December 10, and continue for over a week. The church in this country has never had a formal constitution, but has been governed by the book of discipline and single legislative acts of the general conference. At the last meeting of the conference a commission of seventeen members was appointed, which will meet in Indianapolis for the purpose of constructing a constitution. The commission includes Bishops Merrill, Foss and Nimle; Governor Dillingham, of Vermont; ex-Governor Elbert, of Colorado; Judge Sibley, of Ohio; Hon. Francis Root, of Buffalo; Dr. Todd, of Delaware; Dr. Neely, of Philadelphia; Dr. Miley, of New Jersey; John W. Ray, of Indianapolis; Dr. Luke Hitchcock, of Chicago; Rev. Charles Madison, of Texas; Dr. Rothweiler, of Cincinnati; T. B. Sweet and R. M. Widney, Bishops Bowman and Walden, and Drs. Kynett and Spencer, of Philadelphia, will be among those who attend the meeting. Among the things to be done by the commission will be to give a constitutional place to the women of the church.

ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN.

The late Henry Ward Beecher gave his son the following good advice, which we repeat for the benefit of any young man who may read it. Let them cut it out, and paste it in some convenient place for future reference:

Avoid debt as you would the devil. Make it a fundamental rule—no debt; cash or nothing.

Make few promises. Religiously observe those few. A man who means to keep his promises can not afford to make many.

Be scrupulously careful in your statements. Accuracy and perfect frankness, no guess-work. Either silence or absolute truth.

When working for others, work yourself out of sight. Make yourself necessary to those who employ you by industry, fidelity and integrity. Selfishness is fatal.

Hold yourself responsible for a higher standard than anybody else would expect you to reach. Never excuse yourself to yourself. Be a hard master to yourself, but lenient to all others.

Concentrate your force on your own proper business—do not turn off. Be constant, steadfast, persevering.

The art of making one's fortune is to spend little. In this country any young man who is intelligent and industrious can become rich if he stops all leaks and is not in a hurry. Do not make haste; be patient.

Do not speculate or gamble. Steady, patient industry is both the surest and safest way. Greediness and haste are two devils that destroy thousands every year.

I beseech you to correct one fault—severe speech of others. Never speak evil of others, no matter what the facts may be. Hasty fault finding and severe speech of absent people is not honorable, is apt to be unjust and cruel, makes enemies to yourself and is wicked.

Personal Liberty vs. Physical Slavery.

We are all free American citizens, enjoying our personal liberty; but most of us are in physical slavery, suffering from scrofula, salt rheum or some other form of impure blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great blood purifier which dissolves the bonds of disease, gives health and perfect physical liberty.

The best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will reach all the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh during the past obliges us to admit that only one remedy has met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms yield to it.

THE SKIN.

Is an important factor in keeping good health; if it does not act in the way intended by nature, its functions are performed by other organs,—the Kidneys and the Lungs; and the result is a breakdown of general health.

Swift's Specific

is the remedy of nature to stimulate the skin to proper action. It never fails in this, and always accomplishes the purpose.

Send for our treatise on the Blood and Skin Diseases.

Children always Enjoy It.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

of pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is almost as palatable as milk. Children enjoy it rather than otherwise. A MARVELLOUS FLESH PRODUCER it is indeed, and the little lads and lassies who take cold easily, may be fortified against a cough that might prove serious, by taking Scott's Emulsion after their meals during the winter season.

Beware of substitutions and imitations.

A pitiable sight was seen last evening upon Webster street, between Jefferson and Lewis streets. A middle aged workingman, carrying a bundle of purchases which he had made at some store, staggered along under a heavy load of intoxicants and finally fell to the sidewalk, and lay there until passers-by came to his assistance and picked him up. Regaining his feet, he started off, but again fell. "Oh, I can get home; let me alone!" he muttered. But he was again placed on his feet, and this time led a short distance, when he insisted upon being left alone. Hardly had the assisting hands been released until the drunken man staggered to the outer edge of the sidewalk and plunged head foremost into the gutter. The fall would have broken a sober man's neck, but apparently this inebriate was unhurt, for no sooner had he touched the ground than he burst out with, "Guess I'm too drunk. Some of you fellers will have to help me," and with the permission of the policeman, who was on the scene, and who did not care to add the costs of an unnecessary arrest to the man's expenses, he was led to his home, which was only a few blocks away. "Father is drunk!" was the exclamation of one of the children as the intoxicated man was led through his own doorway, and tears came to the eyes of the wife and mother as she saw her own and her husband's disgrace. What a home coming! And yet scenes like this are repeated in Fort Wayne probably almost every night in the year. Father is drunk! But a few hours before that man had returned from a hard day's work. He went down town to make some purchases after supper, and managed in that brief time to become so intoxicated that he hardly knew his name or the street he lived on. And yet the man who is the principal figure in this pencil picture from real life is not a bad man. He is hard working, kind to his family, open and free hearted, and when sober the very best of citizens. Whisky put him in his miserable plight last night, and it will do the same for others who use it if they tarry at the wine cup long enough. All it wants is time. With some it does the work in one short year, with others in two and three and four, perhaps, but it wins at last. Give it time and it will ruin the wealthiest man on this earth and wreck the strongest constitution in all Christendom. Rum is king among its devotees and rejoices in wrecked lives, unhappy homes, poverty, shame, disgrace and death.

The Child of an Evil Parent.

Malvolio says in Shakspeare's comedy, of Twelfth Night, "Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them." So it is with nervousness. Some are born nervous, some achieve nervousness by their own imprudence and neglect, and some have nervousness thrust upon them by disease. The basic starting point of this ailment, which grows rapidly and assumes alarming proportions when it reaches the stage of hypochondria and chronic sleeplessness, is weakness, the child of indigestion, parent of many evils. For the incapacity of the stomach to digest food, and of the system to assimilate it after digestion, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has ever proved a sovereign remedy. Sleep becomes tranquil, appetite improves, abnormal sensitiveness of the nerves is succeeded by steadiness and vigor in those delicate tissues, bodily substances increases when that signal restorative of digestion is systematically used. Conquer also with it malaria, rheumatism, kidney inactivity, liver complaint and constipation.

What Is Being Done in Fort Wayne in This Important Branch of Work.

The city department of the Young Men's Christian Association has, during the past month, taken in thirteen new members and twenty renewals. There is in successful operation a class in mechanical drawing with seven members. This class is open to any member of the association, railroad as well as city department. A Bible class is held every Sunday evening at 7:30, and is growing rapidly. Ten volumes of bound magazines have been added to the library, also a dictionary stand, the American Farmer donating the dictionary. Both the parlors have been handsomely papered and are very attractive. Finances come in slowly, but it is to be hoped the people of Fort Wayne will speedily come to the rescue with sufficient means to clear all the debt. In the gymnasium the attendance has nearly doubled, and the interest has greatly increased. Fifty dollars worth of new apparatus, the gift of a generous donor, is being added to the equipment. The bowling alley is soon to be planed off and the balls re-turned. Gymnasium classes are held Monday, Thursday, Tuesday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock. Junior class Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and Saturday morning. One hundred and forty-three persons visited the rooms yesterday.

Nearly all are sold on the north side of that road which front upon it, but Rivermet avenene, the first street north of the road, and one of the pleasentest avenues in the whole addition is for the most part yet unsold. This is because the company have not had the time to grade it. They hope to get at it in a few days. When they do, prices of lots fronting on this avenue will be sharply advanced. You can buy lots there now at $350, which the company will expect to get $700 or $800 for very shortly. Better pick one out at once. If next spring you do not want it for your own home you will be able to sell it at an advance of twenty-five per cent. 23-tf

A horse belonging to Mr. Lepper, which was in the barn, was rescued after being slightly burned and injured. The giving of gifts is one of the great links that helps to bind the mighty human family into one common sympathetic body. It is of Divine origin. PARNELL'S LEADERSHIP.

He Alone Will Be Left Unturned to Postpone Indefinitely the Question of His Retirement.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—It is not unlikely that the attitude assumed yesterday by Parnell in determining to stand against his enemies, will lead to the abandonment of the tour of O'Brien, Dillon and their colleagues in behalf of the plan of campaign. Until long after midnight, when it was supposed that they had retired to their respective apartments, the envoys were closeted in parlor 15 and engaged in an animated discussion regarding their future movements. According to the program originally adopted Dillon and Harrington should appear at Dayton to-morrow night, O'Brien and Sullivan at Indianapolis on Thursday night, and T. P. O'Connor at Duluth on the same night, while Dillon O'Brien, Sullivan and Harrington, were to meet on Sunday. After that the party were to seperate, Dillion going to Kansas City, in the west, O'Brien east and the other southeast. This program, however, is likely to abandoned, although the matter may be postponed until this afternoon, in the hope that coming developments may change the situation. Harrington is said to have declared that he would not accompany the envoys any further, although he is undecided whether to return to London at once or remain for a while in this country. All will depend upon the instructions which he receives after the London conference has concluded its labors. If Parnell instructs him to go ahead, he will make a tour of the country on his own account as Parnell's representative.

Dillon admits that the present crisis, and especially the manifesto of himself and colleagues, has seriously complicated the situation, and holds himself in readiness to return home at once if McCarthy considers his presence and that of his associates necessary. Meanwhile the question as to disposition of funds secured on the present tour will not down. Delegates announced at the outset how they were representatives of Parnell and likewise gave it out that the monies contributed would be forwarded to the treasurers at Dublin, appointed by Parnell. The collection book issued by the promoters of local demonstration have the statement on the covers that the money raised would be handed to the Irish delegates to be forwarded to Mr. Parnell. The members the local executive committee, however, are now divided on the question whether this pledge should be carried out. Some contended that if Parnell is deposed he cannot longer be regarded as a proper recipient of the funds and that they should be entrusted to O'Brien and his colleagues and used at their discretion.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—As the inevitable hour draws near in which a conclusion must be reached by the anxious deliberations of the Irish nationalist parliamentarians as to the future leadership of their party, the attention of Gladstonian liberals, liberal unionists and tory members of the house of commons steadily concentrates itself upon the room wherein the Irish patriots, confronted by as great a danger as ever threatened their country, are groping about for some path which may lead them out of the labyrinthian difficulties of the present crisis back to the highway of success so lately and hopefully traversed by them. Before the hour appointed for the convening of to-day's session of the conference members of the house, Irish and English politicians and an army of newspaper men arrived at the approaches to the Irish parliamentary headquarters and eagerly discussed the probable effect of the situation of Parnell's blunt speech of yesterday, of the counsel of delegates to the United States, and of the act of Archbishops Walsh and Croke. The opinions were as numerous and diverse as the individuals giving utterance to them. On one point, however, there seemed to be a unmistakable unanmity of opinion among the English liberals. They bitterly resented Mr. Parnell's savage characterization of Mr. Gladstone as "a garrulous old gentleman."

Before the hour of meeting arrived the near approaches to the room were cleared and those persons loitering in the vicinity were kept under close surveillance by those directly interested in the proceedings. Just before the hour of 12 the Irish nationalists commenced rapidly passing through the various corridors and into the place of conference and promptly on the hour of noon the doors were closed and the deliberations resumed. At the hour of the closing of the doors it was ordered that all representatives of the press be excluded from contiguous corridors.

Mr. Parnell, who was the first to arrive, took the chair immediately after the closing of doors and without a moment's delay called the meeting to order. The first half hour of the session was devoted to the reading of telegrams and cable dispatches which had been received from Ireland and the United States by different members since the meeting of yesterday and the reading of manifestos issued by the delegates of the party now in America, the latter being received with loud cheers.

When the preliminary business had been disposed of by Mr. Parnell, James O'Kelly, one of the members of the house of commons for the northern division, thought fit to abandon division of Roscommor, and addressed his colleagues. Mr. O'Kelly asserted that there was no baser ingratitude than the abandonment of Mr. Parnell by his compatriots in parliament simply because a number of aspiring politicians, who had sought the alliance of the nationalist party with an eye single to their own advantage, thought fit to abandon the high position in the interest of the people of Ireland, which their leader had taken, and because the same ambitious men had intrigued to compare the downfall of the trusted leader of the Irish nation.

At this point the conference adjourned for luncheon. Immediately after luncheon the conference reassembled, and a few minutes later Mr. Parnell, leaving the chair, offered a motion that an adjournment be taken to enable the members to be present in the house of commons to participate in the debate on the second reading of the government's Irish land-purchase bill. It is now quite manifest that no stone will be left unturned by the friends of Mr. Parnell to postpone indefinitely the decision of the party on the question of the gentleman's retirement from its leadership. So true is this that all hopes of reaching a decision on the main question to-day have been abandoned.

DUBLIN, Dec. 2.—The Freeman's Journal to day says: "Time is the great healer. We do not object to having the decision of the nationalist party relative to the retention of Mr. Parnell in the leadership postponed until the feeling of the country has had time to manifest itself unmistakably."

A POLICEMAN'S DEATH.

He Failed to Answer the Roll Call on Earth.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—As the men of the night squad in the Mulberry street police station were about to turn out at 12 o'clock last night Policeman John J. Bates started up the winding stairs that led to the dormotories. At the second landing he lost his balance and fell over the railing into the hallway. Sergeant Maloney was at the desk and hearing Bates' misstep, looked up just in time to see him fall head foremost to the foot of the stairs. Dr. H. J. Holcomb was sent for and Father Callahan, of the old Cathedral in Mott street, came also. While the men in the squad were answering to their names at roll call the priest administered the last sacrament of the church and their comrade breathed his last. Bates was married and was thirty years old.

EUCRE PLAYED SEVEN UP.

Lost Between to Pay and a Suit in Court in the Result.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—H. P. Hutchinson, the well known and wealthy board of trade man, has been made defendant in a suit for $10,000 brought by Samuel H. Bonnes, a broker as plaintiff. The suit is the outgrowth of a friendly game of "seven up," in which Hutchinson, Bonnes and one Lowenstein engaged several days ago. When the game broke up Hutchinson found himself several thousand dollars behind, represented by I. O. U's. given to his fortunate opponents. He was asked to replace these slips of paper by a check on a bank, but he most emphasicially refused to do so on that occasion, as well as later on. Hence the suit.

A WIFE BEATER

Has Punishment Dealt Out to Him By Masked Men.

NEVADA, Mo., Dec. 2.—Late Sunday night Robert Correy was taken out of the city calaboose by four masked men and carried to the outskirts of town, where he was outrageously whipped with hickory whips, over 100 blows being laid across his naked back and shoulders. When released he was covered with blood and innumerable welts showed the severity of his punishment. Correy was incarcerated for wife beating and the vigilantes said they whipped him for this and also for being a Pinkerton detective and correspondent of a Kansas City paper. His wife denies that he had ever whipped her.

AFTER THE REDS!

The Sixth United States Cavalry Regiment Ordered to Fort Meade, S. D.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 2.—The following dispatch has just been received here from Fort Wing College, N. M.: The greatest excitement prevails at the present writing, 1:30 a. m. A dispatch was received by General Carr from the war department directing that the Sixth cavalry proceed with the least practical delay to Fort Meade, South Dakota.

Hundreds of lanterns were seen flitting to and fro, men and officers were hurrying hither and thither. General Carr was up in a moment superintending and giving orders to expedite the movement. The general has had vast experience with the Sioux and is most eager to meet some of them again. Wagons were loading baggage all night and horses are being shipped as fast as possible.

It is believed that in from ten to eleven hours the whole regiment will have left here on its way to the front. This speaks well for the galloping Sixth, who have braved over fifteen years in Arizona and New Mexico.

Lieut.-Col. Morrow, with troop G, Sixth cavalry, will join the command at Watrous station, N. M., which will make in all a total of seven troops at the headquarters of the Sixth cavalry. They will arrive in Denver probably Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Lieutenant Anderson, of the Sixteenth United States infantry, left the recruiting station at David's Island last night with sixty-five soldiers bound for the frontier, where they will go in the Second and Eighth infantry at Fort Robinson, Neb. Orders were received from the war department Sunday to get the detachment ready for service in the Indian campaign. The soldiers, who are nearly all recently enlisted men, do not like their dangerous detail and some of them swear they will desert before they reached their destination. Another detachment will be started on Saturday.

FORGER DISAPPEARS.

A Cashier Who is Short $40,000 in His Accounts Skips.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Wm. Lyttleton, Long, who is under indictment for forgery amounting to nearly $40,000, has disappeared. He was arrested and indicted last May, and barely a month later he was released by Judge Fritzgerald on his own recognizance. Long was employed by J. D. Norlinger & Son, as cashier and in May last it was discovered that he had forged a check on the firm for a few hundred dollars. He was arrested, but a month or so after his incarceration his lawyer, and a young man who claimed to come from the firm, called on the district attorney and asked that, in view of Long's previous good character, a motion be made for Long's release as the firm did not care to prosecute. This was done. Later investigation of Long's accounts, however, show that he has committed forgeries amounting to nearly $40,000, and the firm is anxious for his arrest, but Long has disappeared and the detectives can find no trace of him.

Go Out on a Strike at Birmingham, Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec 2.—The strike of coal miners of this state went into effect yesterday but all the men did not go out as expected. About 6,000 of the 8,000 quit work. The mine operators say that they will fill the strikers' places with negroes. The only sensational feature of the strike is a report that it was brought about by the efforts of Pennsylvania iron manufacturers who want to cause a shut-down of furnaces in this district and it is claimed that these iron manufacturers have promised the miners strong financial support in the event of a prolonged strike.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Dec. 2.—The miners employed by the Monongahela Coke and Coal company struck yesterday against a decrease of 5 cents a ton in pay. About 800 men stopped work. This is a great mining region, and there is indications that the strike will become general. The men are orderly and no trouble is expected.

MRS. EVA HAMILTON.

The Indictment Against Her May be Dismissed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The district attorney will make application to-day before either Judge Cowing or Martine for the dismissal of the indictment against Mrs. Eva Hamilton, charging her with conspiring to defraud the late Robert Ray Hamilton. The district attorney says the case cannot be prosecuted on account of Mr. Hamilton's death. If the motion is granted Mrs. Hamilton can safely bring proceedings in the city to contest Robert Ray Hamilton's will.

Damages for Gun-Shot Wounds.

TERRE HAUTE, Dec. 2.—Henry Brinkman, a restaurant-keeper, recently emptied one barrel of a shotgun into the back of Joseph Rowe, of Brazil, because the latter refused to pay 20 cents for a plate of soup. When Rowe was dunned for payment he knocked Brinkman down and ran. The restaurant man gave pursuit and shot Rowe at the depot. Brinkman was arrested but the state case against him was nolled. To-day Rowe entered suit for $5,000 damages against Brinkman.

WILL COME TO INDIANA.

Deal That May Result in the Removal of All of Chicago's Packing Houses.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The Journal says that negotiations have been in progress for several days between the big packers, Armour, Swift and Morris, who have recently purchased a large tract of land near Hammond, Ind., on which to erect slaughter-houses, and Mr. Stickney, representing the railroad and other interests concerned in the proposed new stock-yards in the township of Lyons, situated west of the city. It is understood that an agreement has been practically reached by which the packers will relieve the present owners of the Stickney tract of their obligations, and, in return, the Stickney syndicate will shift its railroad and other interests to the Indiana tract. If this deal is carried through it will practically settle the transfer of all the stockwards packing and slaughtering interests of Chicago into another state.

A CHICAGO MURDER.

A Switchman Found Dead With a Bullet Hole in His Breast.

Ownership of Lake Cicott Established.

LOGANSPORT, Dec. 2.—The case involving the ownership of Lake Cicott was decided in the circuit court here for plaintiff by a jury, after a hard legal fight. The lake is situated in this county, and is a mile long and half a mile wide. John C. Brophy, a civil engineer, was granted a patent for the same from the United States government. Owners of the land that surrounds the lake claim the same as riparian ownership. The Pan Handle railroad has large ice houses at the lake, and is largely interested. The case will go to the supreme court, and probably to the United States court.

ALMOST TO DEATH.

Claude Notestine Dragged Five Squares by a Vicious Cow—Thrilling Experience.

Claude, the young son of Grocer John Notestine and wife, of 48 West Third street, had a thrilling experience this morning which almost cost him his life. One of Claude's chores was to lead the family cow to pasture. He was performing this act with a light heart this morning and did not notice that Mrs. Brindle at the other end of the rope was out of sorts. His first intimation of such a circumstance was when the bovine gave three or four spasmodic whirls of her tail, shook her head and made a dash forward. The boy was no match for a mad cow. The harder he pulled, the faster ran the animal until at last the latter was mistress of the situation. The boy was hurled off his feet, the rope in his fall becoming entangled about his legs. In this precarious situation he was dragged five squares over the rough road, receiving fearful lacerations to various parts of his body but happily no fractured bones. The cow was caught, thus ending a flight that would no doubt have caused the unfortunate boy's death. Dr. W. H. Myers is doing all within his power to alleviate the lad's suffering.

Hears Representatives From New York and Brooklyn for a Re-count.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The house committee on the eleventh census held its first meeting of the session to-day and heard a delegation of representatives from New York and Brooklyn concerning recounts of the population of the two cities. The New York delegation consisted of Messrs. Flower, Cummings, Tracy, Spinnola, Denphey and Wm. McN. Sher, Mayor Grant's private secretary. Mr. Flower was the spokesman. He asked the committee to grant a hearing on the resolutions introduced in the house yesterday by Messrs. Flower and Cummings, providing for a recount of New York. Mr. Dunnell, of Minnesota, the chairman of the committee, said that he thought the request was proper and it was agreed to hear the arguments on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The New York members say at the hearing a committee from New York will be present with affidavits from every person who was not enumerated by the federal census taken in the Second ward, the only ward of which the federal enumeration numbers have been furnished the municipal authorities. The committee will also furnish affidavits from 450 heads of families, stating that they were present in the city in June when the enumeration was taken and that no enumerators called on them. The New York authorities have called on Superintendent Porter for the population figures of four more enumeration districts, but the request has not been complied with although the money for making the transcripts has been furnished. The New York congressional delegation will ask the census committee to accept the police enumeration of the Second ward as proof of the thoroughness of the police census method of requiring the figures of municipal census for the whole city. Messrs. Campbell, Magner and Clancey, of the Brooklyn congressional delegation, also appeared before the committee and Mr. Campbell said at the proper time he would ask, on behalf of Brooklyn, that action similar to that taken in the request of New York, be taken.

Child Burned to Death.

LOGANSPORT, Dec. 2.—The three year-old daughter of Wesley Penny was burned to death last evening. The father and mother were out milking, when the child complained of being cold, and went into the house to get warm. They were alarmed at her cries a few moments afterward, and, rushing to the house, found her clothing in flames. She died from her injuries after living about two hours in an unconscious condition. It is supposed her clothing caught from the stove, which she had opened.

He apparently recovered his health, but a few weeks ago he injured the newly healed spot, with the above result.

ENDED HIS SUFFERING.

Martin Mergel Prefers Death to Misery and Sends a Bullet Through his Brain.

Martin Mergel, the oldest son of Reinhard Mergel, the well known tobacconist, committed suicide by shooting himself at 1:30 p. m. to-day.

His parents reside at 324 Calhoun street. To-day at dinner the family circle consisted of the father, mother, son, Martin, and daughter, Carrie, a young lady. Martin, who has been affected with consumption for about three years, complained of feeling worse than usual. The father departed as usual for his store, accompanied by his daughter, Carrie, leaving Mrs. Mergel and the ailing son at home alone.

Upon their departure the young Mr. Mergal turned to his mother and said: "I guess I'll have to take some more morphine to stop this pain," and he located the seat of his suffering by pressing his hands to his lungs. His mother urged him not to take any more of the drug unless he really had to do it and she impressed upon his mind the evil results arising from a too frequent dosing of the same.

"Very well, mother," said the young man in a resigned tone. "I think you are right." Those words were the last he uttered. With faltering step Mr. Mergel entered his bedroom, to which communication was had from the sitting room. Mrs. Mergel, thinking he wanted to lie down, stepped into another apartment. Simultaneous with her movement, Martin Mergel had made a quick and final resolve to end a miserable existence which gave to him no promise of the future, but a torture some death. He would trust to the uncertainty of the other life and throw himself upon the mercies of the infinite judge of man's works. An instant later he opened a bureau drawer, extracted a 32 calibre revolver of the Smith & Wesson manufacture. He raised the weapon to his right temple, pulled the trigger and the leaden messenger of death went crashing through his brain. Mrs. Mergel ran to the room to find her son lying partly upon the bed, where he had fallen. On the floor lay the smoking revolver. A stream of blood, gushing from the wound, had run down the blanched face and coursed its crimson way down the white shirt front. The mother knew that her son was dead, but with frantic haste she summoned Dr. A. J. Kesler, who said that death had been instantaneous.

Martin Mergel was well and popularly known. For years he was identified with his father in the retail tobacco business. He was a brother of Rink Mergel, and like him, was a devotee to hunting and fishing. He had no enemies and his friends were friends always. The announcement of his suicide will come like a shock. The funeral arrangements will be announced hereafter.

PLEADS INNOCENCE.

Smith E. Williams, the Gray-haired Offender, Arraigned Before Commissioner Leonard.

Smith E. Williams, who was sent to jail by Mayor Harding yesterday under $300 bonds, to await trial, was to-day handed over to the United States authorities, and if they can make a case against him the other criminal proceedings will be quashed. The offense for which he was arrested was procuring small sums of money under false pretenses. When United States Commissioner Elmer Leonard got the consent of Prosecutor Robinson to forfeit the case for the present he instructed United States Marshal Bulman to bring the prisoner before him. This was done at 10 o'clock to-day. The affidavit charges Williams with procuring money from Mrs. Susannah Ulz, a resident of Grant county, Ind., his method of exacting the same being by falsely representing himself a pension examiner. The prisoner, an old man whose long gray locks and faltering step betoken age, sat motionless while the affidavit was being read to him. When the commissioner had read it through, the old man looked up and said: "I would like to ask the court when this hearing will come up."

"I will set the hearing for Friday at 2 p. m., and will place your bond at $500."

"I would ask another question," said the prisoner. "Will this Mrs. Ulz be a witness in the case?"

"Most assuredly."

"That is all I want to know. She will at once admit that she does not identify me as the guilty man. I am assuredly not the man you are after. Take me to jail again, marshal," and turning to the officer, he held out his trembling wrists to be handcuffed. As he was led away more than one thought he spoke the truth.

This Williams has a strange history. Through some mysterious cause he became an outcast. He claims to have relatives at Toledo. He is shrewd and reticent, and Clarke Stanton, the special pension agent in this city, says that the description of the man who operated in Grant county under the aliases of Carpenter and Smith, tallies rather accurately with Williams' make up. The case is attracting considerable notice.

FORT WAYNE IN IT.

A Michigan and Indiana Base Ball League to Be Organized.

The following from the Grand Rapids Democrat will interest our base ball cranks: "A meeting has been called to organize a Michigan and Indiana base ball league, to be held at the Morton house in this city January 5, 1891. A writer in the Sporting Life thus outlines the plan of the new league. At this meeting it is expected that a large delegation will be present. The cities to represent this league will be Grand Rapids, Saginaw, Bay City, Port Huron, Jackson and Manistee, of Michigan; Fort Wayne, Elkhart and South Bend, of Indiana, the latter two cities to constitute one club.

Should any one of the above cities fail to enter, we will try to have Toledo or Detroit enter, as it is expected that Toledo will drop out of the American association. We will have a salary limit that all can get along upon and survive. It is expected to organize the league on a sound financial basis—make a salary limit, say from $800 to $1,000, make each and every club put up a bond of $500 of a guarantee to finish the scheduled season. For president and secretary of the Northwestern league I would suggest that Frank W. Hine, of Grand Rapids, be elected to fill the office. He would by odds be the best man to fill these two important offices. This year he will have time to give to the position. One thing is certain, if elected to the place, Mr. Hine will see that next season is made the most prosperous in the history of this minor league."

A BANNER WEEK.

The Masons Have Imposing Ceremonies This Week.

The event of Thursday evening promises to be the most interesting inspection ever held by this commandery and the Knights are doing their utmost to give State Inspector Durbin a genuine surprise as to their ability to put up a fine drill.

He is Waylaid and in the Scuffle Has Three Ribs Broken.

At a late hour last night Captain Thomas Twomey, the well known ex-soldier, was attacked at the corner of Calhoun and Main streets by three ruffians, whose object it is believed was robbery. The captain was so badly kicked in the chest by the brutal assailants that three ribs were fractured. Joe Hanna appeared on the scene and the fellows fled. No arrests were made. The captain was conveyed to the Rideall house, where he remains under the care of Dr. W. H. Myers.

PARNELL refuses to retire from the leadership of the Irish party in the English parliament.

TWENTY-SEVEN THOUSAND men in New York City are supported by their wives, and all these men, doubtless, were counted in the census as heads of families.

THE first Thanksgiving proclamation by a governor of Indiana was issued by Governor David Wallace, father of Gen. Lew Wallace, on the 4th of November, 1839, fixing the 25th of that month as Thanksgiving day.

VALPARAISO is preparing to pave its Main street and three other streets with crushed stone. The improvement will cost $10,270.84, of which the city's share will be $410.10. Expense to single lot owners scarcely exceeds $50.

THE Irish envoys, Dillon, O'Brien and their colleagues in this country, have issued a paper addressed "to Justin McCarthy, M. P., vice-chairman of the Irish parliamentary party," declaring their protest against the continuance of Parnell as the Irish leader.

SUPERINTENDENT PORTER of the census bureau has prepared a set of tables showing the apportionment of members of congress among the states under the new census, from 333 (the present aggregate of membership) to 375. If the existing aggregate should be preserved, Indiana would lose a congressman.

THE statement that the New York World had been sold to a Philadelphia syndicate for $3,000,000 is emphatically denied. As the property is earning a net profit of about a million dollars a year, there is no reason to suspect that the owner is anxious to dispose of it at any price, even though the offer is fabulous.

THE trustees of Washington township offer to the county commissioners fourteen miles of free gravel road and if they are accepted Fort Wayne will be greatly benefitted. Free gravel roads and more of them is what we need. They are beneficial to the farmers and the city and will do away with the curse of bad roads.

THE Indianapolis News in a column editorial, on Saturday, argued the necessity of a new constitution for Indiana. The News insists that the changed conditions, great development of resources, the increased business and manufacturing interests and the great accumulation of wealth in the state, demand a new constitution.

THE county commissioners met yesterday and reorganized for their December sitting. Mr. John H. Brannan, who has been president of the board for a year, retired, and Mr. Henry Bullerman succeeded to the chair in the order of his service. Mr. Jasper W. Jones was chosen vice-president, and Mr. Brannan is secretary.

THE enforcement of the anti lottery law has nearly ruined the Louisiana concern that has absorbed millions of earnings for the last twenty years. Where 400 clerks were necessary to do its business a few months since, thirteen now barely have enough to keep them busy. This enforcement of law demonstrates the power of the government when it seriously sets about to effect reform.

THE state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. has just completed his report. He says there are in Indiana 460,000 young men ranging in age from fifteen to thirty-nine; 437,000 of whom are outside of the church, and 345,000 do not attend church at all; thirty towns of over 5,000 population without any Young Men's Christian association; 5,000 saloons, and over $15,000,000 spent for liquor every year in Indiana and 7,000 young men employed to carry on this business.

BEN BUTLER is growing old, but he still retains his pristine vigor and common sense as well as honesty. In speaking of the fight against Parnell, he said:

Assuming, as one must do from Mr. Parnell's character as a straight-forward, truthful man, that his statements concerning Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley are correctly reported, two things very clearly appear: That the whole movement against Mr. Parnell is for political reasons only, and that the pretense that the attack on him is founded solely on the objection to him on the ground of his personal delinquency, is wholly hypocritical. That a man is really to be proscribed in English public life because of his supposed moral delinquencies with women is too farcial to be credited.

If I were in his place I should go into parliament, and after stating the accusations made against me in proper language, I should address the members in the language of our Savior to the accusers of the woman who was charged with like offense: 'He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.'"

THE delegates to the International Barber's Protective association are in session in this city deliberating upon questions of interest to their calling. The tonsorial artists have made rapid strides toward advancement in late years and among their ranks are now numbered many very intelligent men who command the respect and esteem of all classes of citizens. Their business is such as to give them splendid opportunities of becoming acquainted with all the questions of the day. They are quick to avail themselves of them, and as a consequence we find the barbers of this country well posted and well read and they are able to defend their opinions in an argument on either politics, religion or other topics. Few men know how to talk better than do the barbers and withal they are a good class of citizens. THE SENTINEL extends a welcome to the delegates of the International Barbers association and hopes their session it this city will be a pleasant and profitable one.

A MEETING of great importance to the Methodist church generally is to be held at Indianapolis on December 10, and continue for over a week. The church in this country has never had a formal constitution, but has been governed by the book of discipline and single legislative acts of the general conference. At the last meeting of the conference a commission of seventeen members was appointed, which will meet in Indianapolis for the purpose of constructing a constitution. The commission includes Bishops Merrill, Foss and Nimlo; Governor Dillingham, of Vermont; ex-Governor Elbert, of Colorado; Judge Sibley, of Ohio; Hon. Francis Root, of Buffalo; Dr. Todd, of Delaware; Dr. Neely, of Philadelphia; Dr. Miley, of New Jersey; John W. Ray, of Indianapolis; Dr. Luke Hitchcock, of Chicago; Rev. Charles Madison, of Texas; Dr. Rothweiler, of Cincinnati; T. B. Sweet and R. M. Widney, Bishops Bowman and Walden, and Drs. Kynett and Spencer, of Philadelphia, will be among those who attend the meeting. Among the things to be done by the commission will be to give a constitutional place to the women of the church.

ADVICE TO YOUNG MEN.

The late Henry Ward Beecher gave his son the following good advice, which we repeat for the benefit of any young man who may read it. Let them cut it out, and paste it in some convenient place for future reference:

Avoid debt as you would the devil. Make it a fundamental rule—no debt; cash or nothing.

Make few promises. Religiously observe those few. A man who means to keep his promises can not afford to make many.

Be scrupulously careful in your statements. Accuracy and perfect frankness, no guess-work. Either silence or absolute truth.

When working for others, work yourself out of sight. Make yourself necessary to those who employ you by industry, fidelity and integrity. Selfishness is fatal.

Hold yourself responsible for a higher standard than anybody else would expect you to reach. Never excuse yourself to yourself. Be a hard master to yourself, but lenient to all others.

Concentrate your force on your own proper business—do not turn off. Be constant, steadfast, persevering.

The art of making one's fortune is to spend little. In this country any young man who is intelligent and industrious can become rich if he stops all leaks and is not in a hurry. Do not make haste; be patient.

Do not speculate or gamble. Steady, patient industry is both the surest and safest way. Greediness and haste are two devils that destroy thousands every year.

I beseech you to correct one fault—severe speech of others. Never speak evil of others, no matter what the facts may be. Hasty fault-finding and severe speech of absent people is not honorable, is apt to be unjust and cruel, makes enemies to yourself and is wicked.

Personal Liberty vs. Physical Slavery.

We are all free American citizens, enjoying our personal liberty; but most of us are in physical slavery, suffering from scrofula, salt rheum or some other form of impure blood. The best medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will reach all the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh during the past obliges us to admit that only one remedy has met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. The more distressing symptoms yield to it.

Everything shines after its use, and even the children delight in using it in their attempts to help around the house.

Superintendent of Motive Power A. S. Work, of the Nickel Plate road, left yesterday for a trip to Cleveland, Ohio.

Limited passenger train No. 9 on the Pittsburg road, due in this city at 5 o'clock p. m., was fifty minutes late last evening.

The electric lights are being placed in the American wheel works and they will commence the latter part of the week to operate ten hours a day.

Harry McLain, a switchman in the Wabash yards at Springfield, Ill., who was in this city visiting friends for a few days, has returned to that place.

Otto Snyder has returned from Sioux City, where he was helping in the erection of a gas plant, a contract held by the Kerr Murray company of this city.

H. Sloat, fireman on the Grand Rapids road, is off duty enjoying a three weeks vacation. He will spend the time at his home in the country near Waterloo, Ind.

A movement is on foot to build a belt road at Findlay, O., the Big Four, the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton and the Lake Erie and Western joining hands in the enterprise.

The organ company shipped 138 organs last week. This represents a good deal of labor and is a remarkable showing for the period of time covered in the process of manufacture.

Joseph Bossler and Joe Trenchet, of the American wheel works, have returned from Forest, Ohio, where they went on a hunting trip. They succeeded in bagging lots of wild game.

Hon. Elmer White, of Toledo, is quoted as saying that the Toledo Western railway project had been shelved only temporarily, the friends of the project being still determined to construct the road.

The electric light works have shipped a plant of both arc and incandescent lights to be placed in the Auditorium at Louisville, Ky., and also a 1,000 incandescent and a sixty arc light plant to Greenville, Texas.

The gross earnings of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg for October show an increase over October, 1889, of $148,504. An increase in net earnings of $18,671 is shown. The ten months of this year show an increase over the corresponding period last year of $4,176,966, and an increase in net earnings of $1,340,290.

John Eiz has accepted a position in the Pittsburg boiler shop.

Engines Nos. 43 and 81 are in the Wabash machine shop for repairs.

F. Pennoyer, engineer on the Pittsburg road, is absent from duty on account of sickness.

John Brunskill and Mart Brown, of the Bass boiler shop, are absent from duty on account of sickness.

Ed Challenger, clerk in the Pittsburg boiler shop, and wife, have returned from a pleasant visit at Chicago.

Jacob Cashmare, of Battle Creek, Mich., is in the city and will to morrow accept a position in the Wabash boiler shop. He formerly held a position in the same department.

Barney Elcroff, of the electric light works, is the possessor of a valuable trotting horse. He claims the horse can make a mile in 2:28 and he has named it "Nellie Bly," after the famous world girdler.

The electric light works have shipped a 2,000 alternating and incandescent light plant to Philadelphia, Pa., and 240 arc lights and four dynamos, of the Wood system, to Louisville, Ky. This is the first consignment of a shipment of 750 lights to be sent to that city.

A pitiable sight was seen last evening upon Webster street, between Jefferson and Lewis streets. A middle aged workingman, carrying a bundle of purchases which he had made at some store, staggered along under a heavy load of intoxicants and finally fell to the sidewalk, and lay there until passers-by came to his assistance and picked him up. Regaining his feet, he started off, but again fell. "Oh, I can get home; let me alone!" he muttered. But he was again placed on his feet, and this time led a short distance, when he insisted upon being left alone. Hardly had the assisting hands been released until the drunken man staggered to the outer edge of the sidewalk and plunged head foremost into the gutter. The fall would have broken a sober man's neck, but apparently this inebriate was unhurt, for no sooner had he touched the ground than he burst out with, "Guess I'm too drunk. Some of you fellers will have to help me," and with the permission of the policeman, who was on the scene, and who did not care to add the costs of an unnecessary arrest to the man's expenses, he was led to his home, which was only a few blocks away. "Father is drunk!" was the exclamation of one of the children as the intoxicated man was led through his own doorway, and tears came to the eyes of the wife and mother as she saw her own and her husband's disgrace. What a home coming! And yet scenes like this are repeated in Fort Wayne probably almost every night in the year. Father is drunk! But a few hours before that man had returned from a hard day's work. He went down town to make some purchases after supper, and managed in that brief time to become so intoxicated that he hardly knew his name or the street he lived on. And yet the man who is the principal figure in this pencil picture from real life is not a bad man. He is hard working, kind to his family, open and free hearted, and when sober the very best of citizens. Whisky put him in his miserable plight last night, and it will do the same for others who use it if they tarry at the wine cup long enough. All it wants is time. With some it does the work in one short year, with others in two and three and four, perhaps, but it wins at last. Give it time and it will ruin the wealthiest man on this earth and wreck the strongest constitution in all Christendom. Rum is king among its devotees and rejoices in wrecked lives, unhappy homes, poverty, shame, disgrace and death.

The Child of an Evil Parent.

Naturalia says in Shakspeare's comedy, of Twelfth Night, "Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them." So it is with nervousness. Some are born nervous, some achieve nervousness by their own imprudence and neglect, and some have nervousness thrust upon them by disease. The basic starting point of this ailment, which grows rapidly and assumes alarming proportions when it reaches the stage of hypochondriasis and chronic sleeplessness, is weakness, the child of indigestion, parent of many evils. For the incapacity of the stomach to digest food, and of the system to assimilate it after digestion, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has ever proved a sovereign remedy. Sleep becomes tranquil, appetite improves, abnormal sensitiveness of the nerves is succeeded by steadiness and vigor in those delicate tissues, bodily substances increases when that signal restorative of digestion is systematically used. Conquer also with it malaria, rheumatism, kidney inactivity, liver complaint and constipation.

What is Being Done in Fort Wayne in This Important Branch of Work.

The city department of the Young Men's Christian Association has, during the past month, taken in thirteen new members and twenty renewals. There is in successful operation a class in mechanical drawing with seven members. This class is open to any member of the association, railroad as well as city department. A Bible class is held every Sunday evening at 7:30, and is growing rapidly. Ten volumes of bound magazines have been added to the library, also a dictionary stand, the American Farmer donating the dictionary. Both the parlors have been handsomely papered and are very attractive. Finances come in slowly, but it is to be hoped the people of Fort Wayne will speedily come to the rescue with sufficient means to clear all the debt. In the gymnasium the attendance has nearly doubled, and the interest has greatly increased. Fifty dollars worth of new apparatus, the gift of a generous donor, is being added to the equipment. The bowling alley is soon to be placed off and the balls re-turned. Gymnasium classes are held Monday, Thursday, Tuesday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock. Junior class Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and Saturday morning. One hundred and forty-three persons visited the rooms yesterday.

A Successful Young Man.

Mr. T. L. Lintz, proprietor of the China Bazaar, No. 12 East Columbia street, is truly an enterprising young man and he deserves the success he has attained, as he is not only obliging and courteous to his patrons, but he is scrupulously honest in telling all intending purchasers the different grades and merits of his wares, and above all giving the lowest prices that the goods can be sold for. This is the only true way to build up a trade, and Mr. Lintz is enabled to do this as he imports most of his fine Glassware and decorated China direct from Europe and Japan. His store is packed from floor to ceiling with everything pertaining to a first-class crockery store, such as Lamps and Lamp goods of every description. Decorated Tea and Dinner Ware, Decorated Toilet Ware, fine Bohemian Glassware, handsome French and German decorated China, Table Cutlery and Silverware, also goods from the Japanese Empire. Mr. L. informs us that the Japanese are the finest artists in the world in anything they undertake, and in decorations and blending of colors they excel. His stock of Japanese goods is the most complete, and he was the first to handle these goods in the city. Mr. Lintz has one of the handsomest stores in the state and invites all to call and see his Holiday Stock, which is more complete than ever before.

Everything is kept neat and clean, and to all customers the whole establishment is "right" in sight. Mr. Darroch delivers cream, sweet milk, skimmed milk or butter milk in any quantity to all parts of the city. A postal card addressed to him, or orders left at the milk depot on Harrison street will receive prompt attention. 2&6
